

Qualities Of A Good Property Management Company

Hiring a property manager is a smart way to ensure that your property is in top-notch condition. Look for these qualities in a property management company before hiring them.

The company should be prompt in replying to its clients.

It should have enough experience to understand the market.

The company should use latest technologies to offer access to user accounts & financial statements.

There should be strict policies for rent collection & tenant eviction, if needed.

The company should have stringent tenant screening criteria.
