

Tenant Screening

Tenant screening is the first step towards finding quality tenants for a rental property.

Some of the important points regarding tenant screening are:

Background Checks

Apart from timely rent payment, ensure that the tenant will be responsible towards your property and the neighbors; so, conduct background checks.

Hiring Property Manager

There are various methods and technologies used by property managers to provide timely and comprehensive reports on applicants.

In-Person Interview

High credit score is important to ensure financial well-being; however it is equally important to understand the tenant and his disposition during an in-person interview.

Verify Details

Fraudulent applications are a real thing. Make sure that the provided information is correct or hire a professional property manager to verify the details.
